

Nordic Aphasia Conference – Poster presentations Monday June 9th

Poster board number	Poster-id	Presenter	Poster title
1	80876	Claire Bennington	International stakeholder perspectives, experiences, and priorities for aphasia awareness: co-design of a unified campaign
2	80776	Jennifer Lee	Improving web accessibility for people with aphasia: Experiences and priorities from people with lived experience and health professionals
3	80777	Jennifer Lee	Bridging the digital divide for people with aphasia: A protocol for the development of a web-browser extension using experience-based co-design
4	81230	Niamh Devane	Exploring the accessibility of data visualization for adults with language disability
5	81961	Line Haaland-Johansen	Expert, but still a “case”?
6	81237	Joana Kristensson	Self-reported communicative participation in people with anomia and stroke, multiple sclerosis or Parkinson's disease
7	81294	Gillian Anderson	Exploring the feasibility of dialogic reading for people with aphasia
8	81306	Kaila Cote	Real-life communication in people with aphasia occurring within the home environment: Implications for quality of life
9	80495	Penni Burfein	Work-focused aphasia rehabilitation after stroke: An international survey of professional practice
10	81296	Mi Johansson	Interdisciplinary teamwork to support employers and people with aphasia when returning to work – a framework
11	81179	Kathryn Pettigrove	Empowering speech pathologists to facilitate and advocate for community aphasia groups – a novel education package
12	79660	Alexandra Tessier	Impact of aphasic theatre activities on engagement and social participation of people living with aphasia
13	81196	Helga Thors	Breaking barriers in community aphasia groups: Icelandic speech-language therapists' perspectives
14	81331	Lise Vide Petersen	A speech and language therapist supported transition from rehabilitation to youth education for an adolescent with acquired aphasia: A case study
15	81173	Paula Valente	Training needs and intervention practices of Portuguese speech therapists in the rehabilitation of people with aphasia
16	81925	Yvonne Fitzmaurice	Enhancing communication access, social participation and inclusion for people with communication disabilities and difference in society
17	81198	Yvonne Fitzmaurice	Enabling sustainable communication partner training in higher education institutions: A realist review of stroke specific practice.
18	81922	Yvonne Fitzmaurice	A TIDieR synthesis of stroke specific communication partner training for student health care professionals

Nordic Aphasia Conference – Poster presentations Monday June 9th

19	81204	Evangelia Antonia Efstratiadou	Communication partner training for healthcare professionals working with people with aphasia: adapting and implementing KomTil in Greece
20	81135	Maria Assuncao Matos	Do rehabilitation-related healthcare professionals need specific training in communicating with people with aphasia? A case study
21	81138	Maria Assuncao Matos	How Portuguese health professionals and students engage with people with aphasia for effective communication: an exploratory cross-sectional analysis
22	81659	Åsa Lindström	Increasing communication access for persons with aphasia on a brain injury ward – a clinical project
23	81910	Åsa Lindström	Increasing communication skills of healthcare providers in communication with individuals with aphasia – insights from a clinical project
24	80608	Lisbeth Frölund Kristensen	Communication training for families living with aphasia: Perspectives from professionals in neurorehabilitation
25	80338	Claudia Olivares	Communication Partner Training practice in Latin and Central American Spanish speaking Speech and language therapists: What we know and what we do.
26	79389	Maren van Rijssen	Recognizing the crucial role of people in the organization, a CPT implementation project
27	81324	Nina Helen Erikstad	Experiences piloting the Norwegian version of the Better Conversations with Aphasia (BCA Norsk)
28	81002	Katerina Hilari	Measuring successful conversations for couples affected by aphasia: Content validation of the Measure of Dyadic Conversation in Aphasia
29	80731	Nicholas Behn	Identifying techniques in communication partner training for people with acquired brain injury: National e-Delphi of UK speech and language therapists
30	81253	Nicholas Behn	Using behaviour change theory to identify the active ingredients of communication partner training for people with acquired brain injury
31	80476	Marie-Christine Hallé	Encouraging relatives of people with aphasia to seek communication support: Collaborative development of a multi-component implementation strategy
32	80858	Ali Arabi Ayask	Preliminary automated analysis of emotions in individuals with aphasia in natural conversations: An ongoing investigation
33	81267	Hedda Döhli	Aphasia in couples. Resources and barriers in communication.
34	81226	Marion Leaman	ECoLoGiC Treatment improves conversational language and reduces aphasia severity: Results from ten participants with moderate and severe aphasia
35	81151	Marion Leaman	Replacing Do and Go: ECoLoGiC Treatment increases verb diversity and informativeness in conversation in people with moderate and severe aphasia
36	81798	Marion Leaman	Mechanisms for skilled facilitation of spontaneous personal storytelling by people with aphasia during casual conversation

Nordic Aphasia Conference – Poster presentations Monday June 9th

37	81888	Sofie Fjord Lauridsen	The use of Inpatient Functional Communication Interview-Screening Questionnaire among nurses in neurological wards
38	81579	Ester Hedberg	Level Up! – Creating a digital game for and with people with aphasia
39	79839	Malin Bauer	Identification of key elements in pictorial support for persons with aphasia after stroke
40	79879	Tonny Methorst	Interprofessional collaboration for a healthy lifestyle for stroke survivors
41	81713	Elizabeth Hoover	Living With Aphasia: An educational video series for people with aphasia
42	80167	Amanda Wadams	Functional communication outcomes for Wernicke's aphasia: Potential efficacy of a metacognitive-language treatment
43	81880	Bahale Mehale	The involvement of persons with aphasia in shared decision-making following cerebrovascular accident(s) across clinical contexts
44	80767	Maja Karrberg	Patient participation in team meetings for persons with Cognitive Communication Disorder (CCD) after acquired brain injury- A qualitative study
45	80890	Malin Antonsson	Language and communication difficulties in persons with mild aphasia and cognitive communication disorders: A qualitative study
46	81293	Hanna Persson	Shorter response time in naming performance after attention process training in a young adult with traumatic brain injury - an exploratory case study
47	81700	Julianne Alexander	The role of inner speech during a nonverbal problem-solving task in persons with and without aphasia
48	79758	Sophie Brassel	Using immersive virtual reality for assessing cognitive-communication disorders following traumatic brain injury: What do speech pathologists think?
49	80994	Fredrik Sand Aronsson	Longitudinal analysis of written text production in genetic frontotemporal dementia
50	81297	Eric Lindström	Cognitive training for people with aphasia – do not let LET go?
51	79937	Eva Nordet	Self-reported cognitive functioning in persons with aphasia
52	81245	Kristina Lundholm Fors	Exploring language and communication challenges in individuals with long COVID: A qualitative study
53	81231	Anna Volkmer	Speech and language therapy services for people with primary progressive aphasia: A patient and public involvement led health economics study
54	80934	Anna Volkmer	An international perspective on Primary Progressive Aphasia (COS-PPA): Cultural differences in what people want to change about their lives with PPA
55	81150	Fern Rodgers	Examining reporting of dose and intensity parameters in behavioural interventions for Primary Progressive Aphasia: A systematic review
56	81255	Ingeborg Sophie Ribu	Living with primary progressive aphasia - a co-designed questionnaire